Solons Asked To Step Aside JFK Proposes Letting Farmers Draft Programs

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy proposed Thursday that Congress stand aside and let the farmers themselves have a major voice in solving their own problems.

Kennedy said the vexing problem of overproduction needs a commodity-by-commodity approach which should be worked out by farmer groups in consultation with the secretary of agriculture, and then submitted to Congress for a final review.

The legislators would have veto power over individual programs.

Saudi Arabia Tells U.S. To Leave Dhahran Base

WASHINGTON (AP) — Saudi Arabia has told the United States to get out of the strategically located air base at Dhahran, the State Department reported Thursday night.

Dhahran, located on the Persian Gulf, is one of the few bases in the Arab world used by the U.S. Air Force. Another is Wheelus AFB in Libya, North Africa.

The announcement was made by State Department press officer Joseph W. Reap.

He said the Saudis have informed the United States they will not renew the agreement for U.S. use of Dhahran which is slated to expire in April 1962.

Thus, within the coming year, the United States will have to pull out its military units based there.

These include a Military Air Transport Service unit used for cargo and passenger planes and an air-sea rescue unit.

U.S. officials said no American combat aircraft are based at Dhahran or use the field. However, U.S. officials view Dhahran as a strategic location in the event of trouble with the Soviet Union, and America had asked for renewal of the base agreement.

No official reason was announced for the ouster order, which comes after the United States has spent considerable sums in aid to Saudi Arabia and for building the airfield.

Unofficially, the Saudi action was described as resulting from pressures both within Saudi Arabia and in the Arab world. U.S. use of the base has been a domestic political issue and this country has been a favorite whipping boy for Arab nationalists and neutralists.

Expect To Stay On
U.S. engineers who helped construct the airfield were expected to stay on. Also, officials said, civil aviation would continue to use the base as before. The airfield has become a center for international civil air routes.

The American commercial airline which stops at Dhahran, Trans World Airlines, would be able to continue doing so, U.S. authorities said.

The history of Dhahran airfield dates back to World War II when the late King Ibn Saud okayed construction of the base with U.S. aid as part of the Allied war effort against the Axis.

Sources here said the present King Saud has been friendly to ward the United States but other elements in his country have been pressing for ouster of U.S. forces.

Lenten Meditation

By ROSS NICHOLSON
Stroudsburg Methodist Church

"They heard the children crying out in the temple, 'Hosanna to the Son of David!' and they were indignant."

A small child crying out in one of our churches would embarrass his parents, disturb the persons sitting close by, and distract the whole congregation. And if he cried out with the enthusiasm of the children in the temple, we too would be quite indignant. Jesus, who was always quick to turn a small incident into an opportunity to teach, saw more than a disturbance here. He saw the keen perception and the freedom with which these children expressed what they saw and he did not rebuke them.

The Lenten season is a time when we take a good look at the personal religious activity of ourselves and our families. Do we expose ourselves to the marvelous revelation which God has given us in Jesus Christ? This revelation is not a disease but it is contagious, and to catch it we must be exposed. We must give the Christian faith a chance to infect us by exposing ourselves to corporate worship, private meditation, and religious education. Then, the great drama of the Easter event takes on a personal nature and may give our lives the depth of meaning which it otherwise lacks.

This is important not only for each one of us, who may be reading this article, but also for the children who are probably not reading it. We, like Jesus, must recognize the keen perception, inquisitive nature and constant vitality that children possess. And we must each take responsibility for directing these little "eager beavers" to the place where they can be exposed to the good news of Jesus Christ. No child should be robbed of this opportunity to life. Yet it is not his responsibility but ours as parents and friends.

As Easter quickly approaches, let each one of us extend our Christian concern to include one small child who is missing out on life's rich foundation. Lead him in the way he should go and let us hope that:

"Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast brought perfect praise."

State Financing Phase Sliced By Senate From Jobless Bill

UN Censures South Africa For Actions

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The U.N. General Assembly censured South Africa Thursday for repeatedly ignoring U.N. resolutions aimed at eventual freedom for the territory of South-West Africa.

By a vote of 74-0 with nine abstentions, the assembly approved a resolution that criticized South African moves toward annexation of the huge territory on Africa's southwest coast—a former League of Nations mandate.

The action came on the heels of South Africa's decision to withdraw from the British Commonwealth because of criticism of its white supremacy policies. There was speculation that South Africa also might withdraw from the United Nations.

Only two members of the Commonwealth—Britain and Australia—were among the nine abstainers. The others were Belgium, the Dominican Republic, Finland, France, Luxembourg, Portugal and Spain.

U.S. Votes For

The United States voted for the resolution despite the feeling of Britain, France and other colonial powers that it had legal shortcomings.

The resolution was aimed at the meeting of Commonwealth prime ministers in London, where South Africa's decision to withdraw was announced Wednesday.

It called on U.N. members closely associated with South Africa to bring pressure on that country to change its policies in the former German-ruled territory it took over in 1915, and governs under a League of Nations mandate.

South Africa has rejected for years U.N. resolutions calling on it to place South-West Africa under U.N. trusteeship so it can eventually achieve independence.

Southwest Africa covers an area of about 318,000 square miles, larger than Texas. Its population is about 540,000, including 66,000 Europeans.

The resolution charged South Africa with holding a referendum last October aimed at assimilation of the territory, but limiting the vote only to the European population. It said such action lacked moral or legal basis, and was "repugnant to the letter and spirit of the mandate."

"Constitutes Challenge"
South African conduct in the territory, it added, "constitutes a challenge to the authority of the United Nations."

Some delegates in the assembly used harsher language. Francisco A. Delgado, the Philippine ambassador, said South Africa sought to keep the native population in perpetual bondage by applying "the iron fist of apartheid" (racial segregation).

South Africa is due for additional harsh criticism before the present assembly resumes. Yet to be discussed is the general question of racial segregation in South Africa, and the treatment of persons of Indian origin in South Africa.

UN Patrol

Bids To Rescue Missionaries

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—A U. N. Malayan patrol marched through the wilds of Kivu Province Thursday night in an effort to rescue 30 missionaries held captive in Kasongo.

The missionaries managed to get word to the U. N. Command that rebel Congolese soldiers were holding them under guard and that they were without food.

A U. N. spokesman said nationality of the missionaries has not been learned and that an earlier announcement that 23 of them were believed to be Americans "was based on an assumption which has not now been confirmed."

Python Crushes Handler

GIBSONTOWN, Fla. (AP) — A 2-foot-long python escaped from its cage at a zoo Thursday and apparently fatally crushed a veteran snake handler in its flight for freedom.

Alfred Henley, 59, owner of a small roadside zoo, was found unconscious on the ground near the python's cage. The 210-pound snake was found later in a tree. Henley died en route to a hospital in nearby Tampa.

Sheriff's Deputy Norman Beddingfield said an autopsy would be held, but added, "We're going on the theory that the snake crushed him. That's what all these circus people believe and we have no reason to doubt them."

Mrs. Henley told officers the python, a nonpoisonous reptile, had the power to wrap itself around a man and squeeze him to death. She said this particular snake, which the Henleys had owned for several years, had never killed anyone.

Beddingfield said the victim had no marks on his body except a cut hand.

Henley's zoo is located in the center of an area where several small circuses have their winter quarters.

Pete Cristiani, owner of a small circus wintering nearby, and two other men, managed to get ropes around the snake and gently guide it down a ladder and into a large canvas bag.

Government Sues Gambling King

NEW YORK (AP) — Abraham Minker, reputed gambling kingpin of Reading, Pa., Thursday was sued for $1,959,179 in wagering and income taxes.

The government filed the action in federal court here claiming Minker owes the money for the years 1956 through 1959.

The suit followed Wednesday's conviction of Minker in Philadelphia on five counts of willful evasion of $50,000 in federal excise taxes, based on wagers totaling $500,000. He could receive a maximum sentence of five years in jail and a $5,000 fine on each count. No sentencing date was set.

firmed." Determination of their nationality will have to await rescue by the Malaysians.

The U. S. Embassy expressed strong doubt the missionaries are Americans although two Protestant societies—World Grace Testimony and the Evangelization Society African Mission—operate stations in the area.

Other Developments
There were these other developments in the chaotic Congo situation:

1. U.N. reinforcements—tough Gurkha jungle fighters from India—were arriving in strength at Leopoldville's airport. U.S. Air Force transport planes unloaded more than 200 of the fully equipped, battle-ready soldiers.

2. Katanga Province's army claimed to have repelled an attack on the village of Tambo by leftist Stanleyville soldiers. Katanga's army is preparing for an offensive against the rebel-held tin mining center of Manono, 70 miles northeast.

3. At U.N. headquarters in New York, the Soviet Union demanded the General Assembly begin full debate on the Congo problem before the end of the week. But an informant quoted Assembly President Frederick H. Boland of Ireland as saying: "There will not be a meeting this week on the Congo. It is impossible."

Woolever Dismissal Reported

REPORTS that East Stroudsburg State College superintendent of grounds, Carl (Boo) Woolever, had been dismissed by the college's Board of Trustees could not be substantiated last night.

A majority of the board members refused to comment on Woolever's reported firing. However, one member, who declined to be identified, stated that the reason for the alleged dismissal was "disloyalty." The source did not explain the statement.

College president, Dr. LeRoy Koehler, said he would not make any comment until the minutes of the board session had been typed and turned over to him.

Woolever took over the position—one of the better non-teaching jobs at the college—when Harold Wiggins went out during the regime of former Gov. George Leader. Woolever has held the post for more than four years.

Rumors had been circulating for some time that Woolever and other employees at the college were in jeopardy of losing their jobs.

Woolever when contacted by the Daily Record said he has not been notified of his dismissal. However, he said there had been reports that he and another employee "were on their way out."

Troops Get Shamrocks

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — A thousand sprigs of shamrock were flown out to Katanga from here Thursday. They will be distributed to Irish troops guarding the big U. N. base at Kamina.

AND NOW THERE ARE SIX—William W. Cutaiar III gives out with an understandable look of dismay as his wife, Arlene, holds up four fingers to indicate the four baby girls she gave birth to in the Delaware County Hospital at Upper Darby, Pa. The couple has two older children. The quads, born prematurely, weighed in from two to three and a half pounds. All are in islettes, similar to incubators. (AP Wirephoto)

Father Of Quads Can't Get Over It

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—"I just can't get over it—quads happening to me, I mean," said Bill Cutaiar today as, in a fatherly daze, he passed out cigars by fours.

"It didn't exactly happen to you, Bill," said a friend, grinning wide.

The one it did happen to, Bill's 24-year-old wife, Arlene, a former beauty queen, rested happily in Delaware County Hospital.

Like her husband, who is 26, she still found it hard to believe they're the parents of quadruplet girls, born last night and by latest report doing pretty well. The quads' weights in order of birth were: three pounds, three ounces, two pounds, 13 ounces; three pounds, three ounces and three pounds, one ounce.

Told 2 Weeks Ago
The doctor told Bill and his wife several weeks ago that quads were on the way. But telling is one thing, producing is another. And, in Bill's words, "I simply didn't believe it."

All the same the Cutaiars, who live in suburban Malvern, indulged in a little gay speculation, saying "just suppose we had four boys. What would be more fitting than to call them Matthew, Mark, Luke and John?" They were the evangelists who wrote the new testament gospels.

Fate changed all that and now the couple is casting about for charming names for girls.

The Cutaiars have two other children, William IV, four, and Marie Sherrie, three.

The husband helps his father run a trucking business. The mother was Miss Arnamink in a local beauty contest in 1955. Arlene was married the same year, a month after she was graduated from high school.

3rd Monroe County Science Fair

Students Vie For Prizes

STUDENTS competing in the third annual Monroe County Science Fair next week will vie for a long list of cash prizes and other awards, the fair committee disclosed last night.

First-place winners in each of the nine divisions will receive $15 in cash, a gold medal and a blue ribbon. Those placing second will be awarded $10 in cash and a ribbon, and third-place winners will be given $5 and a ribbon. Ribbons also will go to students whose exhibits receive honorable mention.

Two Scholarships
Two college scholarships will be presented for the first time this year on a cumulative point basis. Points earned in either or both of the two previous county science fairs will be added to those earned this year to determine the winners.

The scholarships are worth between $400 and $1,800, depending upon who the winner chooses to attend college. They were presented by Assemblyman Van D. Yetter and Senator William Z. Scott and are good at Penn State University, the University of Pennsylvania, Temple University and the University of Pittsburgh.

Senate Action Major Win For President

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Thursday night stripped a state-by-state financing provision out of the emergency unemployment benefits bill in a major victory for President Kennedy.

The roll call vote was 44-42. The administration had mounted an all-out fight to defeat the provision. At the urging of Sen. Harry

Bulletin

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Thursday night passed the emergency unemployment benefits bill after handing President Kennedy a smashing victory on the key issue of financing the program.

F. Byrd, D-Va., it had been inserted in the bill Wednesday by the Finance Committee which he heads.

With this major test out of the way, the Senate planned to go ahead and complete action on the bill quickly.

The effect of the provision would have been to require that each state's employers must pay for the extra jobless aid payments provided in that state under terms of the bill, one of Kennedy's major anti-recession measures.

National Probe
The administration and its supporters argued that unemployment was a national problem and that the resources of all the states must be pooled to meet it. With defeat of the Byrd amendment, the bill reverts to the financing provision in the measure as it passed the House two weeks ago.

Under that, the $927 million in emergency jobless benefits authorized in the bill would be aid out of a common fund created by a special four-tenths of 1 per cent tax levy in all the states.

These benefits are to go to possibly as many as three million jobless workers who exhaust their regular unemployment compensation rights in a two-year period starting last June 30.

The emergency benefits would be half of the normal benefit period up to a maximum of 13 weeks.

Byrd had expected to win the big floor battle. He pointed out that under estimates obtained by his committee, 40 states would pay out more in new taxes than they would receive in benefits under the bill while only 10 would have larger benefits than taxes.

However, the administration moved promptly to try to win the fight in its first decisive test with conservative Senate forces since Kennedy took office.

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg and Lawrence O'Brien, White House liaison chief, were at the Capitol conferring with Democratic leaders before the Senate met at noon.

Nine Awards Established

THE establishment of nine awards, covering as many divisions in the annual Monroe County Science Fair, was announced last night. Each award is worth $30, to be divided as follows: $15, first prize; $10, second, and $5, third.

The awards were presented as follows:
Engineering, Ronson Corp. of Pennsylvania.

Conservation, Pocono Forestry Assn. in memory of John H. Kunkle.

Biology, Medical Staff of General Hospital.

Human biology, Monroe County Medical Society.

Chemistry, Heico Inc.

Physics, Dr. Claus Jordan.

Natural science, National Drug Co.

Physical science, Monroe County Medical Society Auxiliary.

Space science, A. B. Wyckoff Inc.

Other patrons, whose contributions will defray expenses incidental to the fair, include Monroe County Manufacturers Association, Stroudsburg Engine Works, Buck Hill Falls Co., Olympic Athletic Reconditioners, and Pocono Manor Assn.

Gold medals will be presented to the first-place winners by The Daily Record, which also will award ribbons to all the winning exhibitors and certificates of achievements to every student entering a science project in the fair.

'Guys, Dolls' Draws Raves Of Audience

LAST NIGHT, the "boys and girls" of East Stroudsburg State College, who presented a workmanlike opening night performance of "Guys and Dolls," were roundly applauded for their efforts.

The four principals — Judith Lenhart, who plays the Mission Home chief; Sandra Stutzman, who is Miss Adelaide, a night club entertainer; Anthony Santore, who has the role of Nathan Detroit, head of a floating crap game and William Moyer, who plays Sky Masterson, the man who will bet on anything — gave strongly delineated characterizations.

Enjoy Themselves

The supporting actors and actresses were competent, and obviously enjoyed their roles of craphshooters, small-time gamblers and mission lasses.

About one-hundred men and women from the college chorus and choir appear in this musical comedy based on Damon Runyon's well-known stories of the seamy side of life in a big city.

Prof. Wilfred Clelland, of the music department, is the overall director, while Miss Joanne McKee of the health education department, has charge of the dancing and Prof. Ralph H. Smith, of the speech department, has supervised the settings.

The performance of Guys and Dolls will be repeated tonight and tomorrow night, at 8 p.m. in the college auditorium.

Elementary Books For SU Arrive

THE ELEMENTARY schools of Stroud Union School District received a shipment of science and mathematics reference books.

The books will be placed in the libraries of the seven schools.

The books were purchased by the school district under the National Defense Education Act. Under this program the school district pays half of the cost of the books, while the federal government pays for the other half.

In addition to the science and mathematics books, some audiovisual aids equipment were also purchased. Among these are a slide film projector, a microprojector, and a still-to-be purchased 16mm. projector.

Plane's Cargo Not Dangerous

WASHINGTON (AP)—The cargo jettisoned by a crippled Air Force plane near Williamsport, Pa., Tuesday was not dangerous, the Air Force said Thursday.

A spokesman declined to identify the cargo, but said it was non-explosive, non-contaminating and otherwise harmless.

Search teams have recovered part of the material.

The plane landed safely at the Wilkes-Barre-Scranton Airport helped by lightning its load.

POCONO COMMUNITY CHORUS under the direction of Mrs. Norma Trieble will present a concert Monday at 8 p.m. in the Canadensis Methodist Church. Some of the selections to be sung are "One God," an arrangement by Waring; "The Lord's Prayer," Malotte; "O Divine Redeemer," Gounod-Cain; "Dear Land of Home," Sibelius Finlandia; "Hallelujah Chorus," Beethovens Mt. of Olives and an arrangement of "Then Did Jesus Pray". The concert is sponsored by the Youth Fellowship.

TWO DEEDS were filed yesterday in the office of Mrs. Jeannette F. Batory, Monroe County register and recorder: Pocono Lakeshore, Inc., to

John and Joyce Murray, Orwin, property in Monroe Lake Shores; Hazel K. Hay, Leona and Newman Berger and Charles A. Rittenhouse, Pocono Lake, to Anna Keiper, same address, property in Tobyhanna Township.

Economist Urges Steel Price Cut

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A Pittsburgh economist said Thursday a cut in base steel prices would furnish "greater opportunities for people to earn higher annual incomes at today's high hourly wage rates."

Harold J. Rutenberg suggested a $10 a ton reduction. Finished steel now sells for about $124 a ton.

Rutenberg told a public affairs forum of the Young Men's Christian Association here, that some steel firms can make money operating at less than 5 per cent of capacity.

Deiter Seeks Tax Berth In S-burg

RICHARD P. Deiter of 202 Main St., Stroudsburg, has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination of borough tax collector in the May 16 Primary Election.

A native and resident of Monroe County his entire life, Deiter and his wife own property and have resided in the First Ward for the past 14 years.

Deiter, a former A & P employee in Stroudsburg and, Portland, is now a merchant at 431 No. Courtland St., East Stroudsburg. He formerly had a store at 200 Main St., Stroudsburg from 1954 to 1959 but was forced to move because of construction of the new Interborough bridge.

He is an ex-technical sergeant in the Army, serving during World War Two. He worked in the administrative section at a United Kingdom base, having seven persons under his command.

He is a graduate of East Stroudsburg High School.

Deiter, 43 and a native of Tobyhanna, plans, if elected, to give full time service to the office and full responsibility to the post.

Water Flow Problem Halts Work

BANGOR—Efforts to solve the problem relative to an abundant flow of water from the Old East Bangor Dam into the hole of the Capitol State Company is gradually reaching a satisfactory understanding.

This has been the composite result of verbal negotiations that have been going on for the past several weeks between officials of East Bangor Borough, Capitol State Co. and the Erie-Lackawanna Railroad.

The problem developed when the swollen water from the old East Bangor Dam, following the melting of the snow and increased water drainage, sent a large volume of water down the stream toward Bangor.

The course of the stream, in its flow to enter Martins Creek, in Bangor, flows under the slate dump of the slate company. In going through the dump it follows an arched courseway that has been in use for more than 75 years.

During that time no one ever has been concerned with the courseway and it has been surmised by some officials that blockages may have occurred in the bed of the stream. As long as the water volume did not increase too suddenly or in too great amount it was evident, officials say, that the old archway could take care of the flow.

However, the increase of water due to the spring thaw has caused the water to be diverted from its natural course into the hole of the slate company. Therefore, work at the slate quarry had to be stopped.

100 Out of Work

According to Anthony Capozzola, one of the officials of the slate company, some 100 men have been out of work for the past two and a half weeks as it has been impossible to operate the quarry.

Bernard Parsons, East Bangor burgess, stated when interviewed last night, that the borough is willing to cooperate with both the slate company and the railroad in correcting the problem. He added that the borough will close the overflow of the dam as soon as it has been determined that the water level is remaining constant.

However, he indicated that in the past day, the water level had risen three inches. He also said that the East Bangor Borough officials felt that they would be willing to close the dam overflow if the railroad company was satisfied.

By closing the overflow or regulating its output, the water in the creek would no longer dump volumes of water into the quarry hole. Both Parsons and Capozzola stated they felt the great cause of the problem had been the abundance of heavy rain and snow over the winter months.

Ex-Nazi Chief Is Sentenced To Three More Years

NUERNBERG, Germany (AP)—August Kolb, 67, former chief of the stockade in the Nazi concentration camp of Sachsenhausen, was sentenced Thursday to three years and two months in prison for beating two inmates to death during World War II.

Seven years ago, he was sentenced to four years and three months in prison for his part in the death of 11 other Sachsenhausen prisoners but was released for health reasons after serving part of the sentence.

The remainder is added now to the new sentence.

St. Pat's Party Held By Lions

STROUDSBURG Lions Club held its annual Saint Patrick's Day party at their recent meeting in the Penn-Stroud Hotel, with the club within a club, The O'Shanley's, in charge of the program.

W. Patrick O'Deering, troubled with a touch of laryngitis, was master of ceremonies for the program.

Mrs. Joseph Barnes sang several Irish songs and the entire gathering stood in silent prayer for Frank McNamara who was a charter member of the club and had never missed a Saint Patrick's Day program.

The speaker for the night was Patrick F. Sheering of Scranton who spoke on the theme of "What Great Service Did Saint Patrick Render."

THAW DOES NOT BURST WATER PIPES

Water pipes are burst by the expansion of the water as it freezes into ice. The rent is not noticed until the thaw, when the ice melts and the water pours out.

Put To The Test

The federal government, as we all know, has waded hip deep into activities which used be undertaken, when needed, by state and local governments.

This has had two inevitable consequences. First, it has made a substantial contribution to the gargantuan size of federal spending, federal budgets and federal taxes.

Second, and even more important, it has woefully weakened local independence, local responsibility, local pride in achievement. The general attitude becomes one of "Uncle Sam will take care of it—why should we worry?"

It is argued, of course, that only the federal government has the resources that are needed nowadays to cope with all manner of local problems. But that argument fails, more often than not, when put to a test.

For instance, President Eisenhower last year vetoed a bill calling for expansion of federal grants-in-aid for construction of sewage-treatment facilities, as a means of meeting the water pollution problem. He then called a National Conference of Water Pollution which was attended by 1,145 people.

A poll was taken—and 70 per cent of the delegates agreed that "We have no pollution problems that require any additional federal controls . . . Enforcement is the primary concern of the state."

One of the burning needs of the time is to turn back to state and local government the rights, responsibilities and obligations which belong to state and local government. We'd save barrels of tax money. And beyond that we'd make huge savings in the precious coin of character and principle.

Good Example

Harrisburg — Reporter's Notebook

Ten "For" Counterfeiting — On the surface it might look absolutely terrible . . .

A second or underlying look might well produce a reaction just the opposite . . . The point at which we are driving:

On the calendar of the House of Representatives this week was a bill that would make it illegal to either sell or manufacture counterfeit motor vehicle registration plates . . .

On the surface it would most certainly seem that every lawmaker would go aboard in favor of such legislation.

But what happened? . . . The bill passed the House all right and is now before the Senate . . . It passed with 182 "ayes" (considerably more than the 106 required) — but ten House members voted against the legislation.

Does this mean the ten voting against the legislation actually "favor" counterfeiting of vehicle registration plates? . . . Not at all — although this invariably is the inference cast by opponents at election time.

There are a host of reasons why negative votes are cast on legislation that seemingly every lawmaker would favor, i.e., penalty not stiff enough, disagreement with procedure outlined in the bill, question of language use in the legislation, etc. . . . It does not necessarily follow that the "principle" of the bill concerned is opposed . . .

The "counterfeit" registration bill is a good example.

The Wearin' O' The Green — Today might be March 17, St. Patrick's Day, and Pennsylvania's Governor David L. Lawrence might be an Irishman (which he is!) but there'll be no official hoisting of the green flag atop Capitol Hill . . .

Gubernatorial aides have assured that the blue, red, white and blue American flag will fly tall and predominant from their staffs as usual.

Mr. L. however will be properly decked out in the color of the day — but not in green pants, vest and coat . . . There will be a touch of the green in the gubernatorial attire — somewhere, Press Secretary Dick Haratine assures.

Appropriately though he will be offering remarks tonight at a St. Patrick's Day Banquet of the Knights of Equity in Pittsburgh and on Sunday will attend St. Patrick's Day Memorial Mass at Duquesne University Chapel in Pittsburgh.

And — just to show how far this St. Patrick's Day affair has gone, a bill has been introduced in the Legislature that would make St. Patrick's Day a legal holiday in Pennsylvania!

Legislative Scoreboard — How is Pennsylvania's Legislature faring on the bill front in relation to its last comparable session — that of 1959?

Up to this week, with nine working weeks to their credit, lawmakers in both houses had introduced a total of 1262 bills, as compared with 1250 in 1959 . . .

The House of Representatives is ahead of itself this year, having introduced 881 bills as compared with 831 in 1959 . . . The Senate is behind — with a current 381 as against 419 at the same time in 1959.

Legislative Shock — The death this week of House Republican floor leader Willard F. Agnew, Jr., left lawmakers on both sides of the aisle in something more than a state of shocked surprise.

As late as Tuesday morning (following his death Monday night), a number of lawmakers still couldn't believe that the 36-year-old lawmaker had actually died — it hadn't made the morning newspapers as yet and many refused to believe earlier radio reports of his death.

Agnew, who first started his legislative service six years ago with the 1955 session was regarded as one of the standouts of the "upcoming new breed" in Republican political circles . . .

One of the youngest of contemporary times to hold the floor leadership post, he was regarded with as high esteem on the Democratic side of the aisle as on the Republican side.

More than 75,000 marched along Fifth Avenue in the annual St. Patrick's Day parade in New York City.

Nazi submarines were reported to be on their way to America. They were reported to lay off the coast and spy on shipping movements.

The fire truck stolen from the Moscow Fire Department was located in the Stroudsburg area. This was the second time the truck was stolen in a short period of time.

Milton Berle signed a 30-year contract with the National Broadcasting Company. The contract figures were not released but it was learned that they ran into seven figures.

Off The Record

Today's the day for the Irish to howl. In fact the rigid regulations of everyday life will be tossed aside for a 24-hour spree of telling the world there's nothing finer than the lads and colesens of Erin.

Topping the day will be the familiar tune of George O'Griffs, "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling." Singing along with George will be such baritones as Sam McEveritt (the man who isn't running for office), T. Manning (Cap) Curtis, Mahlon O'Serfass, the traveling educator, and Atty. Ed McWilliams.

This is only one of the many quartets which will group together in different spots in the county. The State Policemen have their own in Donald Henzey, Joseph Murphy, Peter Walsh and Jim Kielly.

Big business has ready the vocal chords of Marty O'Balduin, Jack Dougherty, Frank Maguire, Ted Henning, Paul McBride, William McNix, Tom Sheerin and John O'Kingsley.

During the evening you'll probably hear the voices of Lester McAbeloff, Irving O'Sommers, Atty. Edwin O'Krawitz and Harry O'Freeman.

The day wouldn't be complete without Jack Mullen, Joe Whalen, George O'Speers and Johnny MacFolker chiming in with a note or two.

Then, of course you have the tenors in Jack McKist, Reg O'Naiman, Sam McKusiszewski, and John O'Kirk.

Up in the mountain the breezes will bring to us the soft strains of Johnny McDevitt, John O'Randall, Sam O'Everett (the gent who is running for office), and Joe McBatisto.

To be sure not all of these gentlemen are of Irish descent. But today everyone likes to get into the act and help the guys and dolls of County Cork and Killarney fame celebrate.

Top O' the morning to Ya.

A collection agency in Los Angeles recently received the following letter from a man and wife to whom they had written requesting payment of certain overdue bills:

"Gentlemen: We have received your letter of the 3d and are happy to give you the following information: We have divided our creditors into three groups: (1) those who will be paid promptly; (2) those who will be paid sometime; (3) those who will never be paid. You will be happy to know that due to the friendly tone of your letter have promoted you from Group 3 to Group 2."

Time Marches On

A Los Angeles maternity shop recently received this letter from an indignant customer:

"Dear Sirs:

Please cancel the order for a maternity dress which you were going to deliver to me. My delivery was faster than yours."

Travel is so Broadening: Jackie Chan, the young Chinese actress who was "affiliated" with Tony Armstrong-Jones before he went royal, got the royal brush-off in Hong Kong which is not exactly why she's taking off for her home in Trinidad in the West Indies at this moment so as to pass through Nassau when Princess Margaret and her husband are there . . .

Whole town's talking about how Gov. Rockefeller gave the cold shoulder to Senator Javits at a testimonial dinner . . . One expert has it that Rocky does not particularly care to have a Republican elected mayor this semester because he'd be in a position to overshadow the Governor nationally. Boys will be boys, etc. . . . You will please note that the next undertaking of the irrepressible boy geniuses, Bill Fugazy and Roy M. Cohn, will be a major stock market operation. (And for the rich you sing, etc.)

Half the world over: Earl E. T. Smith, who was axed for the Swiss ambassadorial job by the same lobbyguy who gave us Castro and his goons as our "friendly neighbors," is not finished yet. His congressional testimony was merely prelude to what he can, and will, tell about how Red supporters in high places have (and still are) instrumental in setting American foreign policy . . .

Murder doesn't outlaw, and the Serge Rubinstein affair is still very much alive, with the best opinion being that the world was rid of him by the Communies whom he double-crossed on a financial deal, which is one for their side.

Former Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., N.Y., is slated for a top position in the depressed area program if and when Congress enacts it. He and the President have discussed the matter several times, and FDR Jr. expressed keen interest in this field . . . Nevada Attorney General Roger Foley is a strong possibility for one of the new federal judgeships that would be created in the legislation passed by the Senate and now pending in the House.

Fund-Raising Dinners

By Robert S. Allen and Paul Scott

Washington — The Democratic National Committee is invoking President Kennedy in a new role — as a mid-year Santa Claus to help pay off some $3 million still owing from last year's campaign.

For this purpose, a series of big fund-raising dinners will be staged on and around his May 29 birthday in a score or more major cities.

The President himself has already agreed to address two of them; a $100-a-plate gathering in Washington on May 27, and a similar affair in Boston on May 29. A goal of 10,000 tickets has been set for them.

Vice President Johnson also will probably address two of these fund-raising events, in cities still to be agreed on. At least one of them will be in Texas.

Former President Truman, Cabinet members and other administration notables will do the honors in other places. Definitely not among these fund raisers are Secretary of State Dean Rusk; Treasury Secretary C. Douglas Dillon, registered Republican and Undersecretary of State in the Eisenhower Administration; and Defense Secretary Robert McNamara, also a lie-

Vice President Johnson also will probably address two of these fund-raising events, in cities still to be agreed on. At least one of them will be in Texas.

So far the other cities selected for these $100-a-plate dinners are:

New York, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago, Kansas City, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Seattle.

National Chairman John Bailey is very emphatic, in talks with private leaders, on the urgent necessity of these fund-raising events succeeding. Unless they do, he sternly warns, the Democrats will go into next year's crucial state and congressional elections saddled with debt "and fighting with one hand tied behind them."

Tale of Woe — Bailey is also caustic about the failure of the loudly-touted inaugural gala to produce the money expected from it. Instead of $1.5 million, the steadily-shrinking total will be well under $1 million. The final amount is uncertain because bills are still coming in.

"From the difficulty we are encountering in paying off our 1960 debts and building up a reserve," complains Bailey, "you would never think we won the election. Everybody is so preoccupied with the New Frontier that little or no attention is being paid to party affairs. Meanwhile, time is passing and before we know it we'll be in the midst of the 1962 campaign without adequate means to wage it."

Similarly, Bailey is highly critical of party machinery in key states. He contends drastic housecleaning of top leaders, is needed in a number of them.

"Nixon is telling Republicans they lost because we are better organized," says Bailey. "I only wish that were true. Unhappily, it isn't. I have carefully studied this myth of our great organizational strength, and it is largely unfounded. This is what the record shows in 10 states that actually decided the 1960 election."

"In only two did we bring out a Democratic vote equal to or greater than the Democratic registration. That was in my state of Connecticut and Delaware. In the eight other states, the Democratic vote ranged from 44 per cent of the registration in Oklahoma to 91 per cent in Pennsylvania."

"The Republicans polled a higher vote than their registration in all but two of these ten states — Pennsylvania and West Virginia."

"On the basis of this indisputable record, it is very evident that while we did a fine registration job, we fell down badly in getting registered Democrats to vote for Democratic candidates. And now we seem to be doing the same thing in raising funds for the party's needs. The Democratic Administration is in, but not the money."

Politics — Undersecretary of State Chester Bowles is handling all diplomatic appointments. He is in charge of screening them, and National Chairman Bailey has no voice in this job patronage field. Bailey is making no bones he isn't happy about that, but there is nothing he can do about it because President Kennedy has made it clear he wants it that way.

Plans have been quietly shelved to ask Congress to raise cabinet and other executive salaries; $30,000 for cabinet members; $27,500 for undersecretaries; $25,000 for assistant secretaries and members of agencies. The White House decided against that because of the high unemployment rate. If business is better next year, the pay boost may be revived.

New York State Chairman Michael Pendergast is definitely on the way out. White House insiders are flatly predicting he will be replaced within a few weeks; possibly even next week at the first meeting of the new Democratic State Executive Committee. Pendergast has been in disfavor with the President since last fall's campaign.

Former Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., N.Y., is slated for a top position in the depressed area program if and when Congress enacts it. He and the President have discussed the matter several times, and FDR Jr. expressed keen interest in this field . . . Nevada Attorney General Roger Foley is a strong possibility for one of the new federal judgeships that would be created in the legislation passed by the Senate and now pending in the House.

Drive For 2,000 Pledges In County

Stroudsburg Lions Campaign For Eye Bank

LIONS CLUB of the Stroudsburgs has a campaign under way to obtain pledges of 2,000 eyes from Monroe County. By signing a pledge card the person doing so agrees to allow his eyes, upon his death, to be used to restore sight to a blind individual.

The club is seeking pledges for the Northeast Pennsylvania Lions Eye Bank in Easton, Pa. The bank furnishes eyes to hospitals within a radius of 250 miles. To date it has delivered 110 eyes. Mostly, they are used to replace corneas in the blind; some are used in vitreous transplant or implant (replacing the fluid in the eye behind the lens). A few eyes are used for research.

The majority of the 110 eyes have gone to the Wills Eye Hospital in Philadelphia. Others receiving the Lions' free service are: Philadelphia General, University of Pennsylvania, Atlantic City General, Washington, D. C. General, Brooklyn Eye, Ear and Nose, Nine East 91st

St. Hospital, and St. Luke's in Bethlehem, Pa.

No contribution other than the eyes is made to these hospitals. The Lions' Eye Bank is operated almost entirely without funds; all services are donated, including that of the bank's president, Mr. Walter Hicks, Easton, Pa.

The Northeast (Pa.) Lions Eye Bank was started in 1958 by Lion International Counselor Hicks. Although his home is in Easton, he is nevertheless a member of the Wilson Boro Lions Club. Since the bank's beginning, this man has worked unceasingly to make it a success. Lions all over the world are proud of his accomplishment.

What Happens

What happens when a coupon for an eye pledge is completed and mailed?

The coupon goes to the eye bank in Easton, where an eye-pledge card is filled out and sent to the pledgers. He or she is supposed to keep the card on his person at all times (in wallet or purse).

When the pledgee's effects are gone over after death, the card is discovered, and the Lions Club is notified immediately. A surgeon performs the enucleation, the surgical operation to remove the eyes. They are placed in a container for the quick trip to the hospital, where the operation on the blind person is to take place.

The eye bank is in constant touch with these hospitals, and the hospitals with the patients. While the eyes are being transported, the patient is notified to appear, and is readied for the operation, in fact two patients are prepared, since only one eye per person is done at a time.

State Police Aid

Many times members of the Lions Club have volunteered their services in delivering eyes. State Police also transport eyes.

by relaying the container from barrack area to barrack area.

The surgical operation at the eye hospital consists of removing the opaque lens in the blind person's eye, and replacing it with the clear lens from the donor. The length of the operation is about 45 minutes.

There have been a few times when a pledgee's eyes have been buried with him. This is due to the fact that his effects were not gone over soon enough. The time elapsed from the point of death to the completion of the operation in the eye hospital should not be more than 12 hours.

Stroudsburg Lions lost the pledge of one of its members in this manner. To forestall this eventuality, the club has now notified all doctors in Monroe County, all undertakers, and the coroner to determine whether the dead person has a pledge card.

The reader may use the coupon on this page to order his pledge card, or get one or more from one of the places designated below. (The Lions Club is anxious to have whole families pledge their sight to others when they have no further use for it.)

Four Thus Far

To date the Stroudsburgs have donated four eyes; they were enucleated at the Monroe County General Hospital by Drs. T. I. Metzgar and William M. Simons.

Prof. Albert Einstein once stated, "I know not way mankind peoples the Earth, but since he does, the reason can be no other than to serve his fellow man."

Many of us have mighty few opportunities to serve our fellow men. So, what better way could it be done than by restoring sight to a child, or an older person who has long been in darkness?

Some of eyes from Lions' eye bank are used here for vitreous implant, for corneal transplant, and for eye research. Operation takes but 45 minutes. Dr. William Simons has just removed the eyes of a donor who had pledged his eyes a few years ago to the N.E. Pa. Lions Eye Bank. Dr. Paul R. Maxwell, president of the Stroudsburg Lions Club, stands by ready to start the eyes on the first leg of their journey. The undertakers' skill eliminates all evidence of this simple operation when he prepares the body for the funeral.

Court Dismisses Murder Charge

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP) — A murder charge against Robert S. Tomcheck, 38, of Dearth, in the beating of a motorist was dismissed Thursday in Fayette County Criminal Court.

Judge John I. Munson threw out the charge for lack of evidence on motion of defense counsel after the state rested its case.

Tomcheck and Anthony Discovich, 20, of Searights, had been accused of slaying Andrew Paci, 48, of Brownsville, after hitchhiking a ride in his car. The state dropped its case against Discovich Tuesday.

Urged To Fix Election Date

JERUSALEM (AP)—Parliament yesterday asked its legal committee to fix a date for new elections early this summer. The maneuver practically excludes any last-minute development that might lead to another interim government replacing that of Premier David Ben-Gurion. Ben-Gurion's government resigned Jan. 31 but is continuing as a caretaker regime.

"Here comes your paper, Ma'am There goes my allowance MOM"

Our George shouted his personal declaration of independence, then hurried along to the next house.

"You're like a tadpole, son," Dad had cautioned the day he asked to become a newspaperboy. "Wet behind the ears, and trailing the tail of childhood."

"Newspaperboys lose their tadpole tails early," countered George. "They prove how dependable teenagers can be, save in bank accounts, and . . ."

"But you have your allowance, George," mother interrupted.

Patrick Henry could not have replied more majestically.

"The day I start is the day my allowance stops," George exclaimed proudly.

Dad lit a cigar, the lazy smoke showed he was thinking.

"Mother," he murmured, "isn't it the duty of all us Frogs to help Tadpoles wiggle off their tails?"

Princeton Seminary Team To Visit S-burg Churches

A PRINCETON Evangelistic Fellowship Team will be the guests of the young people of the Presbyterian Churches of Stroudsburg and Delaware Water Gap tomorrow night.

The four young men who comprise the team are all studying for the Christian Ministry at Princeton Theological Seminary. They include John Boice of Maywood, Illinois and a graduate of Northwestern University; Gerald Bell, Jr., of Knoxville, Tennessee and a graduate of the University of Tennessee and Columbia Theological Seminary; Joseph McCord of Paris, Illinois and a graduate of Lake Forest College and Larry Selig of Dobbs Ferry, New York and a graduate of Dartmouth College.

Independence Too Abruptly For Indonesia

"IT IS A PITY that the independence of Indonesia came too abruptly. The Indonesians were not yet ready to receive independence nor capable to lead the tribes in the heart of Borneo and Celebes."

Thus did Miss Maria Busse describe an underlying cause for Indonesia's plight today in a talk Wednesday before the Kiwanis Club at the Penn-Stroud Hotel.

"After 10 years of independence there is still fighting in Indonesia," said Miss Busse, who lived in the Dutch East Indies until fleeing to the Netherlands in 1950 and seven years later coming to this country.

She has been employed by the Penn-Stroud Hotel for the last four years and is presently in charge of the payroll department.

Postmaster Recommends

Among Themselves

The fighting now, she said, is among the Indonesians themselves. "Economically, the country goes down more and more. Indonesia is an easy prey to Communism. In fact, this is the trend at this time. I hope the world will see this danger in time for the sake of peace."

Miss Busse was born in Sumatra of a Dutch father and Indonesian mother. Her mother died when she was two years old and her father returned a short time later to the Netherlands.

Poisoned By Japanese

She said that before World War Two, the people in Indonesia, especially the Japanese, were gentle, courteous and well-mannered. But the Japanese conquerors poisoned them—especially the youth—with hate towards the Dutch.

"When Sukarno and the extreme nationalists proclaimed the Republic of Indonesia, the beast came over the Indonesians," Miss Busse explained. "They murdered and plundered and spread their hate and terror over the whole white race. In their stupidity, they damaged almost all European estates and factories, not realizing that they were throwing away their own welfare and prosperity."

Miss Busse was introduced by Eric Schuchard, program chairman. Vice President Walter McClelland presided at the meeting.

UN Rejects Angola Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The U. N. Security Council last night rejected an Asian-African resolution calling reforms in Portuguese Angola despite support by both the United States and the Soviet Union.

The resolution received only five affirmative votes—two short of the seven required for approval in the 11-nation council. It was supported by its three sponsors—Liberia, Ceylon and the United Arab Republic—in addition to the two big powers.

In a dramatic move, U. S. Delegate Adlai E. Stevenson split with the Western Allies in the vote. Britain, France, Nationalist China, Turkey, Chile and Ecuador abstained.

Liberian Delegate George Padmore announced that he would take the issue immediately to the 99-nation General Assembly now in session.

He bitterly told Nationalist China's T. F. Tsiang that the African countries would not forget the Chinese abstention. Apparently this was an implied threat to vote for the seating of Red China in the United Nations.

The defeated resolution called upon Portugal to carry out previous U. N. resolutions urging respect for human rights in Angola. It also proposed a U. N. subcommittee to inquire into the situation in the Portuguese African territory.

Will Speak

Sunday morning two of the Team members will join with the youth classes of the church schools and assist in the morning services at the two churches. At each church one of the Team members will speak briefly on "Why I am entering the Christian Ministry."

Sunday night at 5:30 o'clock the young people will have a light supper at the church. At 7 p.m. the Team members will be in charge of the Junior High and Senior High Westminster Fellowship programs.

Railroads Ask Equal Treatment

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A group of Pittsburgh railroad officials will make a 200-mile train tour in a campaign against what they call government interference in their operations.

The group announced plans for the tour Thursday. Railroads in the eastern section of the nation are engaged in the campaign for what they term equal government treatment of their industry.

Eastburg State Men Join Civil War 'Bufs' Ranks

By ALICE HASTINGS
A GROUP OF 30 students on the East Stroudsburg State College campus have formed a Civil War Centennial Club. Under the advisorship of Dr. Alfred D. Sumberg, it seems headed for official status as a campus club. College president LeRoy J. Koehler, himself a local historian of note, has given it the nod, and

QUARTERMASTER JOE TAYLOR, from East Stroudsburg State College's Civil War Club, poses in a 'Yankee' uniform, with a Civil War musket from Steve Luckey's gun collection. Club members are preparing talks on the Civil War to give to local civic groups and area schools. (Photo by Kacik)

Trade - Industry Education Group Appointed By Boehm

A 14-MEMBER State Advisory Committee for Trade and Industrial Education was recently named by Dr. Charles H. Boehm, State superintendent of public instruction. Its purpose will be to counsel the department on matters pertaining to trade and technical education on the secondary and post-high school level. The department eventually aims at a network of 44 area technical schools throughout the state with emphasis on economically distressed areas. One of the 14 is Mrs. Agnes McCartney of Lansford, wife of State Police Commissioner Frank G. McCartney. Another is J. Edgar Hilgendorf, chairman of the Reading Chamber of Commerce. The function of the committee is to counsel the department on matters pertaining to trade and technical education on the secondary and post-high school level. There are currently around 80 trade and industrial schools in the commonwealth. Allentown, Bethlehem and Easton have them. And all three are serving the purpose for which they were designed, says William L. Cooper, chief of trade and industrial education

Oppose Aid To Private Schools

THE PENNSYLVANIA Council of Churches has urged its 10,000 related Protestant churches to oppose federal aid to private and parochial schools. Horace G. Paris, of York, council president, said the member churches should "express their concern in this matter to their senator and representative." The council said federal aid to private and parochial schools would be a "devastating blow to the public school system." The council statement said state and federal governments "should continue to accord freedom to religious bodies to carry on their own schools." It added: "Those who establish and promote parochial schools should accept the responsibility to provide full support for those schools and not expect to receive subsidies or special privileges from public authorities."

Ammerman Quits County Position

CLEARFIELD, Pa. (AP)—Joseph S. Ammerman, citing press of private law practice, resigned yesterday as district attorney of Clearfield County. Ammerman, a Democrat from Carversville, announced earlier he would not seek his third four-year term. His assistant, Eugene G. Kibbe succeeds him.

the student senate intends to vote on it shortly.

Why has this group gotten together? Colonel (club president) John Vogt, a junior from Easton, has this to say: "I want it clear that we're not following any other college's lead. It just happens that a lot of individuals at ESSC are — well, real fanatics on the subject of the Civil War.

"They've read about it for years, and a few of them, like Steve Luckey who has a collection of guns used in the war, have gone to trouble and considerable expense gathering materials on it."

A glance at publishers' book lists for the past 25 years shows a heavy weight on the side of the 'war between the states.' In fact, it seems to be the most consistently popular topic for American historians and novelists.

What are the club's plans? "We're preparing a speakers' directory, that'll be out soon," promises Quartermaster (club treasurer) Joe Taylor, a sophomore from across the river in New Jersey.

"Since we have a number of experts, on different phases of the war, we're asking each one to make up a ten-minute speech on his specialty. We'll list these and offer speech and speaker to local civic clubs. Naturally, since we're all going to be teachers we hope that the area schools will want to hear us, too."

Steve Luckey, a junior from Stroudsburg RD 3, intends to give a firing exhibition of his collection of rifled muskets "as soon as the weather permits."

"My theory about these guns," Luckey says, "is that they're more accurate than many in use today. Maybe my demonstration will prove that."

A few of the guns Luckey will use in his show have been lent him by Joseph Patson, the East Stroudsburg barber who is a 'gun buff.'

Does this concentration on the Civil War tend to perpetuate prejudice, or emphasize sectionalism?

Dr. Sumberg does not think so. "We're studying the war impartially," he insists. "As an example of true Americana, and as a vivid part of American history. This year is the centennial of the war, you know, and I haven't noticed anyone, anywhere, being partisan about it."

What's this with the 'buffs'? None of the 30 Civil War 'buffs' seem to know. From its use, however, one may conjecture that it means, "...you're hep, man," or again, "The Civil War's real cool... cool."

Help En Route To U. S. Barge

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP) The U.S. icebreaker Staten Island is steaming 2,000 miles from the Amundsen Sea to recover a fuel barge adrift in McMurdo Sound, the New Zealand Press Association said yesterday. The barge, containing 200,000 gallons of aviation fuel, broke loose from its moorings near the U.S. base on Ross Island during a storm last week.

SU Plans Pre-School Testing

THE Stroud Union school district program of pre-school testing for children who will enter kindergarten and those new children who have not already been seen by the psychologist, Miss H. Eloise Bryan, will begin April 5.

All children who will enter school for the first time in September must be seen by the psychologist prior to the fall term. Children now enrolled in the kindergartens of this district need not be retested.

Appointments for registration are made for half-hour periods. All appointments must be made ahead of time by calling Elementary School office at Arlington Heights School. The telephone number is HA 1-2800. Appointments may be made between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

It is expected that all children in the Stroud Union District will have a year of kindergarten as the beginning year of their school experience.

Eligibility Data

To be eligible for kindergarten a child must be five years of age before Feb. 1, 1962. To be eligible for first grade a child must be six years of age before Feb. 1, 1962. Parents must bring the child's birth certificate or baptismal certificate to prove date of birth. No child will be tested unless the parents can verify the date of birth.

Vaccination certificates may be checked at this time, also. No child will be permitted to start school in the fall who has not been successfully vaccinated.

All testing will be done in the Arlington Heights building this year.

Appointments will be given on a first-come, first-served basis. Children will not be seen according to the school which they will attend.

Polio 'Epidemic' Hits 5 Counties

HARRISBURG (AP) — Polio cases in Cambria, McKean, Potter and Somerset counties reached epidemic proportions last year, the State Health Department said yesterday.

The department said that by epidemic proportions it means "clearly in excess of normal expectancy." It also said that 15 of the 145 polio cases reported last year resulted, in the patient's death.

Although Allegheny County, with 23 cases reported, had the highest total of any county, its rate per 100,000 population was 1.35.

The department gave this breakdown on the number of cases in the four counties which it said had reached epidemic proportions: Cambria, 11 cases (5.37 rate per 100,000); McKean, 11 cases (20.1); Potter, 6 cases (37.5) and Somerset, 15 cases (19.5).

Of the total of 145 cases reported, the department said, 72 had received no vaccine. It said the reduction of the number of polio cases in the state since the development of Salk vaccine in 1954 shows the vaccine is effective.

New York Harbor has 730 miles of shoreline.

Rep. Yetter Will Welcome Appalachian Trail Parley

REP. VAN D. YETTER, Jr., state representative from Monroe County, will be the welcoming speaker at the 15th Tri-Annual meeting of the nationally-known Appalachian Trail Conference on June 3 at Delaware Water Gap, the borough Chamber of Commerce announced. This will be the first meeting the conference has held in this area since its third session at Easton in 1929.

The group's business meeting will be held June 3, 4 and 5 followed by hikes on June 6, 7 and 8.

Special programs are being scheduled for the meeting by the borough and chamber of Commerce. The programs will include a talk on the history and background of Delaware Water Gap. This is set for Saturday evening, June 3.

It was also announced that arrangements are complete to hold the fourth annual Delaware Water Gap Outboard Motor Boat Regatta on June 10 and 11. The regatta will be sanctioned by the national organization, the American Power Boat Assn., and race officials will be provided by the Delaware River Outboard Racing Assn., of Philadelphia.

Vacation Unit To Cite Area Solons

POCONO Mountains Vacation Bureau will have a membership dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. next Thursday, March 23, at the Penn-Stroud Hotel.

The dinner is planned as a testimonial to Rep. Van D. Yetter and State Sen. William Z. Scott for their aid in introducing and supporting House Bill 558, making additional funds for tourist promotion available to the Pocono Mountains area.

A business meeting will be held at approximately 8:15 p.m.

"Why don't they make it easier to clean?"

When the housewife speaks, industry listens. Research like this is an essential part of advertising. It tries to find out what you want, so that marketers can supply it for you, and then tell you where to get it. Advertising creates mass demand, which in turn spurs mass production. This opens up new jobs, and puts more money into circulation. It's a process of productivity and plenty, which provides you with the things you needed when the researcher came to the door.

Let's Keep Rolling Ahead.

The Daily Record

Speculative Security

By William A. Doyle
Q. What is this "Port St. Lucie Investment Plan"? I hear about it as a real estate investment trust. Then, I read someplace else that it is nothing of that type at all. As I understand it, it is more than the purchase of a home in Florida. Is it an investment which gives an income in rentals?
A. You should get one thing straight in your mind right off the bat. The "plan" you ask about is not a real estate investment trust.
The plan is a novel speculative security offered through General Development Investment Plans. The key to the whole thing is the purchase of new, furnished homes in the Port St. Lucie Country Club development, near Fort Pierce on Florida's east coast.
The investor who signs for such a plan makes a down payment and monthly payments after that — much the same as he would on any home.

But there's much more to it than that. The plan-company not only arranges for the financing of the home but also maintenance, management and a program for renting the home when the investor-owner is not using it.
A person might go into this with the idea of using his Port St. Lucie home for vacations and for eventual retirement. While he is not using it, the plan-company will take care of the gardening and all the other necessary maintenance.
In addition, the plan-company will act as renting agent. This provides added appeal for the investor-owner who is looking for income and income tax advantages.

Q. I have just received a notice of the annual meeting of a company in which I own stock. At the meeting, stockholders will vote on the election of directors and certain other matters. One of these "other" things is a proposal to eliminate "stockholders' pre-emptive rights." I'm not sure I know what this means. But it sounds as if I and all the other stockholders might lose something. Can you explain?
A. When stockholders of a company have pre-emptive rights, they are guaranteed the opportunity to subscribe (through a "rights offering") to new securities offered by the company before those new securities can be sold to anybody else.
Many stockholders feel very strongly that pre-emptive rights should be preserved. They present a darned good argument. The stockholders are the owners of the company. If new stock is sold by the company and the present stockholders do not get an opportunity to subscribe through a rights offering, the "equity" percentage of ownership of each stockholder is cut.
Those management people who are opposed to pre-emptive rights point out that a company can often get a better price for new securities when a public offering to all investors can be made. They claim that this, in the long run, benefits all stockholders.
And, they point out, that the present stockholders can buy the new securities when a public offering is made.
This is a hot argument. It seems that it will go on forever. Nevertheless, from this catbird seat, I lean toward the theory of pre-emptive rights.

Forestry Aide Assigned To Office In Stroudsburg

PENNSYLVANIA Department of Forests and Waters recently made personnel changes in over one half of the State Forest Districts in Pennsylvania.
Delaware District which includes Monroe, Pike and Northampton Counties with an office at Stroudsburg under the supervision of District Forester, E.F. McNamara, had some personnel changes under the program.
Assistant forester Clarke Harris who has been working in this district for three years received a promotional transfer and is now assigned to the Susquehanna District with district office in Coudersport.
Assistant forester, Ralph E.

Heilig, was promoted and transferred from the Elk Forest District in Emporium to Stroudsburg to replace Harris.
Heilig is a graduate of Pennsylvania State University where he received his B.S. in Forestry.

DV Council To Add New Scout Head

EXECUTIVE Board of Delaware Valley Area Council has authorized adding a full time District Executive to the staff of the Council, thus providing full time service to Blue Mountain and Pocono Districts effective July 1.
The move which has been planned for years was decided upon after the board had accepted the resignation of District Executive Daniel R. Miller who is being promoted to a similar job in Wilkes Barre effective April 1.
The wide spread territories of these two Districts has made it obvious for some time that one man is severely handicapped in trying to serve them.
One District Executive will be hired as soon as possible and he will serve both districts until July 1 when the new man is added.
A committee consisting of Parke W. Kunkle, Harrison T. Sales and Donald R. Young was appointed to review the insurance program of the Council and to make recommendations to the Executive Board.
Board members were urged to be present at the annual Program and Budget Planning Conference which will be held at The Inn at Buck Hill Falls on March 24, 25, 26.
Featured on the program will be Abe Snyder of the Region III Executive Committee and Deputy Regional Executive Irwin C. Scullin.

6 Mentioned For Agnew Post

HARRISBURG (AP) — Six names were being prominently mentioned yesterday as possible successors to the late Willard F. Agnew Jr. as House Republican floor leader.
They included Rep. Albert W. Johnson, of Smethport, whom Agnew unseated in an upset last December. Johnson had held the job eight years.
Also being discussed as leading candidates were Lee A. Donaldson Jr., 36, Pittsburgh; Edwin W. Tompkins, 60, Emporium; W. Stuart Helm, 52, Kittanning; Edwin E. Lippincott 3d, 42, Media, and James S. Bowman, 42, Harrisburg.
All except Helm, an oil company salesman, are attorneys.

Blood Cholesterol Explained

DR. PETER KUO, of the Department of Medicine, University of Pennsylvania, addressed the Monroe County Medical Society at a meeting held Wednesday night at General Hospital.
His talk centered on blood cholesterol and its effect on arteriosclerosis (hardening of the arteries), its diagnosis and medical treatment, and dietary management. Dr. Kuo is an authority on the subject.
It was reported at the meeting that Dr. Meyer Halperin, anesthesiologist at General Hospital, had conducted a course on resuscitation for two more fire companies in the county.
Given as a public service, the instruction has met a favorable response among members of all fire companies who have taken the course. Dr. Halperin is available to give the course to other fire companies, also ambulance corps and other interested groups.
Dr. L.W. Hunsicker, chairman of the blood bank committee, completed the roster of physicians to cover the Bloodmobile visits during the next six months. The doctors serve without pay.
Dr. John Martucci, president, reported that the Future Physicians Club sponsored by the medical society will meet next week.

Dear Abby

Dear Abby: Don't parents who married back in 1940 have any sentiment left? I am going to be married this fall and both my mother and father have been trying to talk me out of having the big, glamorous church wedding I have always wanted.
My father offered me $1000 and an aluminum ladder (he said he would hold it for me) while I eloped. And my mother keeps telling me we should be practical and take the money instead of the wedding. I can't see that idea at all. My fiancé says it is up to me. I still want the biggest, most glamorous wedding we can afford. Aren't memories important? Am I being foolish? I would like to hear from other brides on this subject.
SIGN ME: "SENTIMENTAL"
Dear Sentimental: If you want a "big glamorous" wedding—and your parents can afford it—go ahead and have one.
Dear Abby: My girl is a doll but she has a cute little hobby of collecting salt shakers wherever we stop to eat (and with the purse she carries she has no trouble getting away with it). She now has 37 pair and is working toward 40. Help, Abby!

SALTY
Dear Salty: Your girl friend's "cute little hobby" should not be taken so lightly. It is stealing. Even if she takes it with a grain of salt.
P.S. Remember Lot's wife?
Dear Abby: I recently spent five weeks in the hospital. While I was there my husband came to see me and found one of the men patients in my room visiting with me. Abby, my husband accused me of everything in the book, which is ridiculous because the man was 72 and looked every day of it, and I had my leg in a cast, my back in a brace and 21 stitches in my side. A day hasn't passed but what my husband hasn't dragged this poor old man into the conversation. My husband is 47 (I am 36) and I have heard that men go through the "change of life" like women, causing them to be suspicious and imagine things. Could it be that?

ACCUSED
Dear Accused: If could. But don't diagnose your husband's case without the help of a physician.
CONFIDENTIAL TO CONCERNED DAD:
Your son's behavior sounds much too feminine for a healthy young man. Take him to an endocrinologist. If he is suffering from a hormone imbalance, no amount of parental pressure, masculine example or all the talking in the world will make a man of him.
Yes, Abby will answer your letter personally if you write to Abby, care of The Daily Record.

Just Between Us —

—By Bobby Westbrook

They had a wonderful crowd out for the Temple Israel Sisterhood. As a matter of fact if they had any more people, everybody would have had trouble getting their dessert down. They could have put it in their mouths but with the chairs crowded close to the tables they might have had trouble swallowing it.

Everybody seemed to be having a good time, including the models—and wow, some pretty new ones there were too—and Sally Ferree, who as commentator enjoyed telling her boss where to go—in this case Joe Whelan, who was a model.

The only possible exception was Ida Jolley who was for the fashion show held on Wednesday night at the Penn-Stroud Hotel with every seat in the ballroom filled for the "Fashions and Ballads" which followed a dessert.

The ballads featured the Choralliers of East Stroudsburg High School under the direction of Kenneth Raesler whose program included songs of spring and love as well as novelty numbers. It was given thunderous applause by the crowd.

A 24-hour make-up was demonstrated by Mrs. Eva Savage of the Stroudsburg School of Cosmetology using Ida Jolley as a model.

Sally Ferree was narrator for the fashion show itself which featured clothes for both men and women from Herb's H's N' Her Shop. Richard Matlock provided the background music for the swift-paced show.

For women, the fashions varied from lady-go-to-meeting costumes of dresses with matching jackets through suits to casual sportswear and reflected many trends of couture designers.

A three-piece suit in black and white check, for instance, had a full length coat, with the new longer jacket of the walking suit. Side closings, a symmetrical drape and face-framing necklines were other fashion worthy features.

New use of material such as the leather piping on a coordinated sweater, mattress ticking, unbleached muslin and burlap in sports outfits added interest.

In the men's wear color played an important part in both the suits and sportswear. In feather-weight summer suits, olive burnished gold, and a black with no trace of shine were highlighted.

In the sportswear, patterned jackets were highlighted in muted tones but unusual patterns, varying from Italian tiles to a Gay Nineties blue and white stripe.

Never than new was a sort of Cavalier rancore for men and a double breasted blue flannel jacket with pearl buttons.

A number of new models made their first appearance at the show including Mrs. Jack Cays, Mrs. Jack Weltman, Miss Judy Haswell, Miss Joyce Haswell, Mrs. Douglas Nichols and Mrs. Swanne Williams, with Mrs. Seymour Katz, Mrs. Robert Shaw and Jack Mullins.

For the men Jack Mullins, Joseph Whelan and Gene Powers did the honors.

Wild Deer Not Free Gift, Doebling Reminds PTA

Analogomik — Wild deer are not a free gift from nature, John H. Doebling, district game protector of the Pennsylvania Game Commission, pointed out to members of the Analogomik Parent Teachers Assn. at their meeting this week.

Every year the cost of producing deer goes up, he warned, which must be paid by someone: Landowners, farmers, or the game commission.

"As the costs rise, the deer are in conflict with other of man's interests," he said, "and only the actual carrying capacity of the range should be maintained so as not to conflict with other land uses."

Doebling estimated that it costs the hunter an average of about $180 for each deer killed with only about three per cent going directly to the landowner.

A question and answer period followed his talk. He showed two films, "Birds of Home and Garden" and "Lost Hunter."

Doebling presented to the school a new chart just published by the Pennsylvania Game Commission. It is a reproduction of a painting by Ned Smith, wild-life artist, showing the state tree, flower and bird.

Mrs. Addie Weidman presided at the business meeting when plans were completed for an egg hunt to be held for the children at the school on Wednesday afternoon with the home-room mothers assisting the teachers. Prizes will be awarded.

Final plans were made for the rummage sale to be held today and tomorrow in the store room next to the Grand Theater in East Stroudsburg.

Government And Religion Study Theme

Newfoundland — "We know where we stand, but do we know why?" That was the question discussed by the Greentown-Newfoundland-South Sterling Youth Fellowship at the Moravian Church under the leadership of Jerry McLain. The program theme was "Christianity and Government."

Donna Bartleson and Kathleen Croft led devotions preceding the business meeting at which Jerry McLain presided.

The Christian Witness Mission was discussed. Jane Beehn, Diane Eggert, Gerald McLain and James Hinton will participate in the preparatory meeting on March 25 at Hamilton at 10 a.m., and in the mission on April 7, 8 and 9.

A Bi-District Rally was announced for April 9 and the Sub-district banquet on April 16 at Moscow (deadline for reservations for the latter, April 10).

Shirley Smith will have charge of the annual Holy Week Youth Services at the Moravian Church on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of Holy Week. These services, by and for youth, will begin five minutes before school opens and will close promptly to allow students to reach school before classes begin. Everyone is invited to attend.

In response to an appeal from the Regional Youth Council, read by the Rev. Larry T. Lindemuth, the MYF approved a pledge, the amount to be decided next week.

The March 19 meeting will be a snack supper and film, beginning at 6:30 p.m. at the Moravian Church.

PTA's Join For Film On Psychopaths

An entertainment featuring David Miller, hypnotist, will be sponsored by the Clearview Parent Teachers Assn. on April 8 at 7:30 in the auditorium of Stroud Union High School.

At the business meeting on Tuesday night, it was announced that tickets could be obtained at the door or from the ticket committee: Mrs. Clarabelle Sebring, Mrs. Rita Katz or Mrs. Miriam Cahn.

Publicity committee for the show is Mrs. Shirley James and Mrs. Gladys Blevins.

Elected to the nominating committee were Mrs. Robert Hellmann, Mrs. Richard Lindroth and Mrs. Clarabelle Sebring.

The PTA signed a contract to have pictures of the children taken next year, and members were reminded to save articles for the next rummage sale to be held April 28 and 29 in the building next to the Grand Theatre.

Refreshments were served by Miss Florence Bates and the fourth grade mothers.

Hostesses for January, never acknowledged were Mrs. Earl Lee, Mrs. Betty Shiffer, Mrs. Arthur Jensen and Mrs. Fred Spencer.

Press Auxiliary Banquet Sat.

The annual banquet of the Ladies Aux. of the Int. Printing Pressmen and Assistants Union will be held Saturday night, March 18 at the Saylor's Lake House at 6:30. Music will be provided for round and square dancing.

At their meeting this week, the auxiliary also planned an Easter Egg hunt for their children on April 1 at 2:30 at the CLU Club. After the egg hunt, refreshments of chocolate milk and cookies will be served to the children; coffee and cookies to the adults.

At the April meeting secret pairs will be revealed.

Hostesses were Mrs. Ann Schaller, Mrs. Marge Bird, and Mrs. Marion Bensley.

Local Graduates Advise Students To Buckle Down In High School, PTA Finds

Students are even harder on their younger contemporaries than parents, according to the results of a recent questionnaire answered by Stroud Union High school graduates of the past three years now in colleges and nursing schools.

"Have you any recommendations for future graduates?" was the key question sent out by the Stroud Union Parent Teachers Assn.

More than 75 per cent of the students queried answered, which is, in itself, a sort of a record — and they'd have recommendations, some of which follow:

"Learn how to study, what to study and try not to be as juvenile as I was," said one.

Read, Read, Read

"For Pete's sake—READ," read another. "Form opinions. If you don't understand anything—ASK. Don't be an introvert—SOCIALIZE with people and have some extra-curricular activities, but not too many so that your grades will be pulled down. Determine your limit and develop good study habits."

"Learn how to study before you reach college. There are enough adjustments to make without having to learn how to study," ruefully reports a third.

Encouragement came from another: "High school seniors need have no fear of college; college is a wonderful thing and any student who has the opportunity should attend college. However the student must be prepared to work. This is most important. College demands a great deal of the student. The student must be willing to work first and put all other things second. Despite this concentration on work, the student will enjoy college, for college is nothing less than great — satisfaction in one's work makes it greater."

One practical suggestion: "Take a semester of typing, it's fast, neat and often a required way of writing."

One student was reassuring: "Take advantage of all that Stroud Union offers and you will not have any drastic troubles when you are in college," while another warns "Stress the importance of taking advantage of high school, as I now regret that I didn't do my best."

"Don't be afraid of hard work," advises another, "you haven't seen anything yet. Take a wide range of electives if possible. Read all you can and develop your reading skill as far as possible. Don't start college with the idea that the professors owe you a good average because you have a high I Q and did well in high school. They don't owe you a thing, and you are no smarter than anyone else in college."

Another advises: "Learn to write concise, grammatically correct English. The ability to write well is one of the main things which help a student."

Praises Record Series
Still another quote: "I feel that anyone who graduates from Stroud Union has as good a background for college as anyone else providing he has studied. Personal study habits should be developed. One of the hardest tasks I had was preparing for finals. I have been reading the current series on study habits in The Daily Record, and they are quite true and to the point. If they were published in a handbook and given to students, it might help those who are interested in their schooling."

A summary of the results of the survey will form half of the program in "The Graduate

Children's Luncheon At Temple Sunday

The women of Hadassah have invited the children of the community to attend a luncheon and movie on Sunday from 1:30 to 3 p.m. in the Temple Israel Vestry room in observance of World Childs Day.

The day is an international observance for Youth Aliyah to promote friendship between the children of Israel and children throughout the free world.

Started in England in 1947, it became a world celebration in 1950. Youth Aliyah was formed when the first group of 43 children from Hitler's Germany came to Palestine. Since then 100,000 children from 72 countries have been rehabilitated.

Fashions, Ballads Please Capacity Crowd For Show

The Sisterhood of the Temple Israel could report a sell-out crowd for the fashion show held on Wednesday night at the Penn-Stroud Hotel with every seat in the ballroom filled for the "Fashions and Ballads" which followed a dessert.

The ballads featured the Choralliers of East Stroudsburg High School under the direction of Kenneth Raesler whose program included songs of spring and love as well as novelty numbers. It was given thunderous applause by the crowd.

A 24-hour make-up was demonstrated by Mrs. Eva Savage of the Stroudsburg School of Cosmetology using Ida Jolley as a model.

Sally Ferree was narrator for the fashion show itself which featured clothes for both men and women from Herb's H's N' Her Shop. Richard Matlock provided the background music for the swift-paced show.

For women, the fashions varied from lady-go-to-meeting costumes of dresses with matching jackets through suits to casual sportswear and reflected many trends of couture designers.

A three-piece suit in black and white check, for instance, had a full length coat, with the new longer jacket of the walking suit. Side closings, a symmetrical drape and face-framing necklines were other fashion worthy features.

New use of material such as the leather piping on a coordinated sweater, mattress ticking, unbleached muslin and burlap in sports outfits added interest.

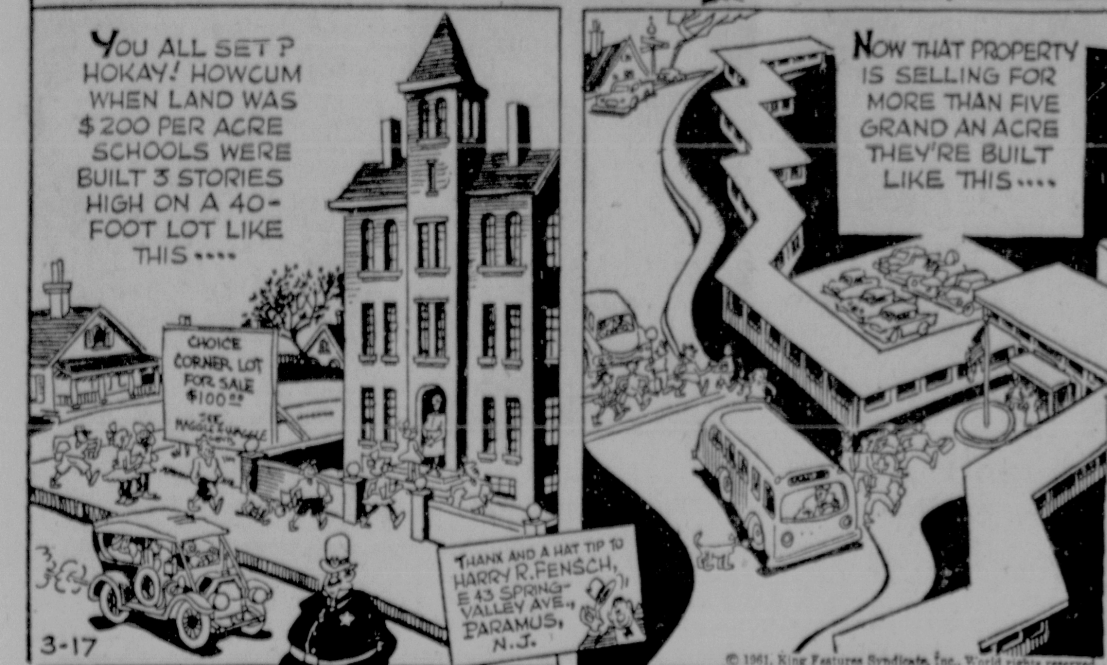

In the men's wear color played an important part in both the suits and sportswear. In feather-weight summer suits, olive burnished gold, and a black with no trace of shine were highlighted.

In the sportswear, patterned jackets were highlighted in muted tones but unusual patterns, varying from Italian tiles to a Gay Nineties blue and white stripe.

Never than new was a sort of Cavalier rancore for men and a double breasted blue flannel jacket with pearl buttons.

A number of new models made their first appearance at the show including Mrs. Jack Cays, Mrs. Jack Weltman, Miss Judy Haswell, Miss Joyce Haswell, Mrs. Douglas Nichols and Mrs. Swanne Williams, with Mrs. Seymour Katz, Mrs. Robert Shaw and Jack Mullins.

FRIDAY, MARCH 17, 1961
March 21 to April 20 (Aries)—Would be rewarding to look closely at a few of the strong points of the renewed Saint Patrick, who is so many honor today. We could use his patience, dedication, zeal amidst humility.

April 21 to May 21 (Taurus)—Put a quick step to rumor. Ill will encourage the best qualities and endeavor in those about you—something you especially like. But do not reward anyone double for patience.

May 22 to June 21 (Gemini)—Must bring from past to tomorrow's strongly suspicious aspect urges all your talents to the fore in your careful directorship and with natural precautions. Those things that are quite fit.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer)—Retreat—than-average offerings for you who take up duties with tact, sturdy courage of purpose, and remain within sphere of realities, never foregoing the dignity of each individual.

July 24 to August 23 (Leo)—Fine outlook if you are faithful to God's many gifts to you. If you will not let back and say "I cannot," or "I don't know how," you are as good as the real Leo, who exudes bright enthusiasm.

August 24 to September 23 (Virgo)—A large amount of friendliness, gentleness and understanding required now for amicable, successful results you and those about you desire. A generous share of benefits is needed.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra)—There is a fine line between healthy, shows added effectiveness and puts more meaning into one's labors and life. You are the first-needed recruits; some extra activity.

October 24 to November 23 (Scorpio)—Do it well, and forget about criticism of certain people who at times of purpose, and with the wonderful world and things you do in it, and for it. Keep spirits high.

November 24 to December 21 (Sagittarius)—Many St. Patrick's day! And a wish that you will make as fine use of your talents as that famous saint who achieved his greatness from within, without any material comforts.

December 22 to January 20 (Capricorn)—Dreaming won't make anything so, but wishing hard enough while you ALSO maintain sturdy effort and will power to succeed are a wonderful combination, added a laudable, ingenious.

January 21 to February 19 (Aquarius)—Transit aspect, growing to full strength tomorrow, urges you out forward your practiced talents and dig up in the hidden, too. Room for as much healthy power as can be mustered.

February 20 to March 20 (Pisces)—Many wise thoughts come up for contemplation this day. Day calls for strength of purpose, unified demeanor, and a desire for the common good rather than personal gratification.

YOU BORN TODAY: Pisces, the doublet. Many diversified gifts for a happy life, and to assist others to enjoy the better things that come from the mind, heart and soul. We could all look to the Saint's life whose Feast is celebrated around the world today. St. Patrick's for a wise action, putting self-satisfaction off, and aiming to better another's road before one's own, which all together ultimately brings high benefits, lasting inner strength, rewards, unexcelled. YOU can toward true goals in life if you try daily, don't let optimism down and scotch super-sensitiveness.

Buckeyes Face Stern Test From Tall Louisville Team

Unbeaten, top-ranked Ohio State begins defense of its National Collegiate (NCAA) basketball championship Friday night against a towering Louisville team bent on pulling an upset before a home audience.

"All the teams are tough," warned Coach Fred Taylor, who has mastered the Buckeyes through 29 straight victories and to the undisputed No. 1 position in college basketball.

The game at Louisville features a far-flung program which sends 16 conference champions and hand-picked independents into regional eliminations to determine four semifinalists.

Survivors of these four preliminary playoffs Friday night and Saturday qualify for the championship showdown at Kansas City March 24-25.

Here is the schedule: East at Charlotte, N.C.—Princeton (18-6) vs. St. Joseph's of Philadelphia (22-4), St. Bonaventure (23-3) vs. Wake Forest (18-10).

Midwest at Louisville — Ohio State (24-0) vs. Louisville (20-7),

Morehead (19-10) vs. Kentucky (18-8).

Midwest Battle
Midwest at Lawrence, Kan. — Cincinnati (23-3) vs. Texas Tech (14-9), Houston (17-9) vs. Kansas State (21-4).

Far West at Portland, Ore. — Utah (21-6) vs. Los Angeles Loyola (19-6), Southern California (21-6) vs. Arizona State (22-5).

Cincinnati, St. Bonaventure and Southern California are favorites to join Ohio State's defending champions in the big climactic show at Kansas City next weekend, but form reversals are common in tournaments of this kind.

Louisville is throwing one of the nation's tallest teams against All-American Jerry Lucas and his gifted Ohio State teammates. The host team's front line consists of Fred Sawyer, 6 feet 11, Bud Olsen, 6-8, and John Turner, the Cardinals' top scorer, 6-5.

Poised Squad
However, the Buckeyes have a poised, experienced squad with four starters from last year's winning combination. Besides Lucas, the Olympic star, there are Larry Siegfried, John Havlicek and Mel Nowell.

Ohio State's sternest competition in the tournament may come from a neighbor, Cincinnati, which is on a red-hot 18-game winning streak and the No. 2 team in the country on the basis of the Associated Press final poll.

The Missouri Valley champions are heavily favored over Texas Tech, the Southwest kings, and will be picked to take the winner of the game between Kansas State and Houston. Houston qualified by beating Marquette Wednesday night 77-61.

Bonnie's Class
St. Bonaventure, with All-American Tom Stith as spearhead, appears the class of the Eastern sections, although a stern fight can be expected from Wake Forest, upset conqueror of St. John's. The Bonnies lost a 2-point decision to Ohio State in the Holiday Festival at Madison Square Garden in December.

Southern California's hopes of winning at Portland were buoyed by the report that the team's star point-maker, John Rudometkin, should be at full strength for the weekend games. He was sidelined earlier with a leg injury.

Sun And Grapefruit Circuits

Orioles Drop 6th Straight; Phillies Bang Chicago 13-3

The Baltimore Orioles, winless so far on the Grapefruit circuit, must still be "building character" for their tenth straight exhibition game Thursday.

Norm Sibern's 3-run homer plus effective pitching gave the Kansas City Athletics a 5-1 victory over the Birds at West Palm Beach.

The previous day, when manager Paul Richards was reminded his Orioles still hadn't won a game, he remarked:

Pittsburgh Wins
"Yes, I'm building character this year."

Pittsburgh's world champion Pirates made it six victories against one loss by defeating the Milwaukee Braves 7-2 with four homers and effective pitching by Vernon Law and Don Gross. The Braves got seven hits, Pittsburgh 15.

Rookie Elmo Plaskett hit two home runs, Bob Skinner and Gene Baker the others.

Milwaukee's "B" team, however, turned in an 8-2 victory over the Washington Senators as Wirtren Spahn scattered nine Senator hits and allowed one run in seven innings.

Four singles, a walk and an error by Gus Bell permitted the Minnesota Twins to score three runs in the eighth inning and beat the Cincinnati Reds 5-3.

Rookie Steve Boros' double in full powered the Detroit Tigers to a 7-4 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Angels Lose
Cleveland defeated the Los Angeles Angels 3-2 in 10 innings on Hal Jones' single with one away and the bases full.

Philadelphia chased nine runs across in the third inning, routing starter Herb Score, and the Phillies trounced the Chicago White Sox 13-3. The Phillies sent 14 batters up, with Clay Dalrymple getting a 3-run homer and Johnny Callison a solo home run.

Phil Ortega, Roger Craig and Stan Williams held the New York Yankees to three hits and the Los Angeles Dodgers won 6-1.

The San Francisco Giants scored four runs, three unearned, in the first inning and defeated the Boston Red Sox 7-4.

Pair Share Golf Lead With 63s

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) —Chunky Billy Casper Jr., and skinny Jack McGowan, each with a torrid 63, tied for the first-round lead in the St. Petersburg Open Golf Tournament Thursday as the field ripped the Pasadena Club's par 71 to shreds.

Approximately half the players —78—were under par and 93 of the 159 entrants were par or better as the sharpshooters made a shambles of the flat, 6,296-yard par 35-71.

Casper and McGowan bettered the old competitive course record of 64 held by Henry Bolaista of Tampa and Jim Turnesa of Rye, N.Y. Casper, the former Open champion from Apple Valley, Calif., had a 6-under-par 29 on the home nine, which he played first, and achieved his 63 despite two bogies.

Eight Birds
The virtually unknown McGowan was out in 22 and back 31, and had eight birdies.

In third place, alone in the 65 bracket, was Mason Rudolph of Clarksville, Tenn., with 33-32, and five players were tied at 66. They are the veteran Cary Middlecoff, Tommy Aaron, Don Fairfield, Frank Wharton and Gary Player, the South African.

Thirteen players were in the 67 bracket and the 68 class was jammed with 19 contestants, including Tommy Bolt, winner of the Pensacola Open last Sunday.

Weber Wins ABC Crown

DETROIT (AP) — Dick Weber salvaged the prestige of the St. Louis Budweisers at the American Bowling Congress Tournament Thursday when he took first place in the all-events and second in the singles of the classic division.

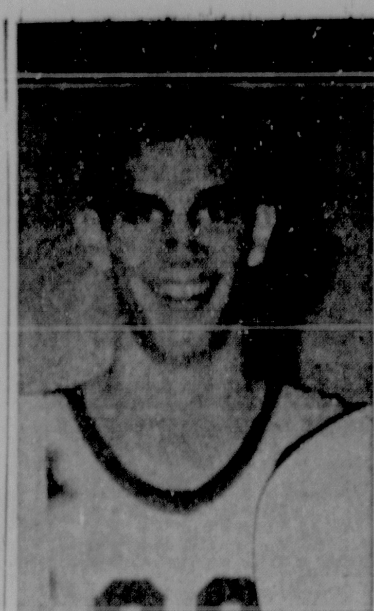

The slender anchorman of the four-time national team champions rolled a 607 series in the team event Wednesday night and came back Thursday with 668 in the doubles and 653 in the singles to boost his total to 1,934. Bill Golembiewski of Detroit, the all-events leader since March 9 with 1,877, was dropped to second place.

Weber's 246-189-224 string in the singles earned him second place in that category. Horace Walker, Ardmore, Pa., leads the classic singles with 663.

Ray Bluth, Tom Hennessey and Budweiser Capt. Pat Patterson all registered the worst ABC, all-events totals in their careers. Bluth had 1,638 for nine games, Hennessey 1,660 and Patterson 1,609.

League Holds Annual Banquet

Young, Ryans, Borger, Luck Named To Pocono Mt. Basketball Star Team

CHAMPION Barrett Twp. High School leads the Pocono Mountain Scholastic Basketball League all-star team, with three players picked for the first team.

Barrett's Tom Young and John Ryan were selected for first team awards, along with Bill Borger of Pleasant Valley and Ed Luck of Tobyhanna Twp.

The all-star team is sponsored by The Daily Record, with the six league coaches selecting the players to be honored. Each coach picked a first and second team and also honorable mention selections.

Coaches were not allowed to vote for their own players. Players received three for a first team nomination, two for second team and one point for honorable mention. The first team is made up of the five players receiving the largest number of points.

Young, one of two seniors on the team, was the lone unanimous choice. The 6-2 rebounding ace, who averaged 16 rebounds and 13.5 points a game for Coach Al Shollenberger's Buildogs, earned 15 points or five first team nominations.

The other four players on the first team each polled 14 points, four first team votes and a second team selection.

The second team is made up of Peter Ask, Pocono Twp. Glenn Dailey, Coolbaugh; Frank Duffy, Delaware Valley; Bob Smallwood, Coolbaugh and A. J. Bittner, Barrett.

Ask and Duffy each received two first team votes, while Dailey and Bittner had one apiece. Smallwood had four second team and an honorable mention votes.

The point breakdown on the second team gives Ask, 12 points, Dailey 11, Duffy 10, Smallwood 9 and Bittner 8.

omen-R, ostar
Ralph Dunlap of Tobyhanna Twp., heads the honorable mention list. Dunlap polled seven points, missing by one point, a second team berth.

Others on the honorable mention list are Ray Conklin, Jim Crellin and Tom Sassaman, Delaware Valley; Jim Fritz and Ed Roma-savage, Pleasant Valley; Jerry Enders, Barrett; Larry Stiff and George Watson, Coolbaugh; Ron Werkheiser and Peter Girard, Pocono Twp. and Jake Murphy, Tobyhanna Twp.

The Ryan twins are the only sophomores on the first team. Norb was Barrett's high scorer, averaging 16.9 points a game, a tenth of a point more than brother John.

John was the second leading scorer in the league, averaging an even 20 points a game for 10 games. Norb was fifth, at 15.9.

Borger, a senior, who guided Pleasant Valley to a third place finish, was the loop's leading scorer, averaging 22.2 points a game. He won the title in the last game of the season, when he scored 35 points against Barrett.

He was also selected as a Brite Star of the Week by the Daily Record, as were Norb Ryan and Luck.

Luck holds the league single game scoring mark of 41 points, set this year. Since this was the first year of operation for the Pocono set-up Luck's output has to be a record but it is also believed to be the highest total in a single game for the league, when it went under the Monroe County League name.

The name was changed when Delaware Valley, Pike County, was added to the group.

The coaches who took part in the voting were Shollenberger, Sam Everett, Coolbaugh Twp.; John Bush, Tobyhanna Twp.; Bill Frear, Pleasant Valley; John Hamor, Delaware Valley; and Harry Werkheiser, Pocono Twp.

The members of the first team were presented plaques by Daily Record Sports Editor Curt Prins last night at the league's annual banquet at the West End Firehouse, Brodheadsville.

The league championship trophy, donated by The Daily Record, was given to Barrett Twp., while Delaware Valley received the junior varsity trophy and Tobyhanna Twp. got the baseball championship award.

The main speaker at the banquet was Rev. Harold Eaton, pastor of the East Stroudsburg Methodist Church.

The practice time committee was made up of Al Erdosy, Northampton, chairman, Richard Wolford, Pen Argyl and Paul Esser, Dieffert High School, Allentown.

Alfred Munson, principal of Stroud Union High School, is the president of the study group and Wolford is the secretary.

Other educators from the area attending the meeting were Ralph Burrows, principal of East Stroudsburg High School and chairman of District 11, PIAA; Allen Jackson, Pen Argyl principal and Paul LaBar, Bangor High School faculty manager.

Redskins Get New Stadium
WASHINGTON (AP)—Washington's new $20 million stadium will be ready for football by Oct. 1 and the professional Redskins will play there on that date, it was reported Wednesday.

George Preston Marshall, owner of the Redskins, said he had received assurances on the stadium from Thomas McCloskey, an executive of the main contractor.

The Washington Senators will use Griffith Stadium for baseball this year but are negotiating for use of the new stadium in 1962.

Capacity of the new plant will be 52,000 for football and 42,500 for baseball.

Johansson Receives $12,000 Pin Money

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Ingemar Johansson pleaded Thursday that he needed money for current expenses and Federal District Court allowed the Swedish heavyweight fighter $12,000.

Judge Emmet Choate granted a petition by Johansson that Feature Sports Inc., promoters of Monday night's championship fight, be permitted to pay him out of the gate receipts, being held up pending settlement of tax claims.

Matthew Mannes of New York City, attorney for Johansson, had asked for $15,000 but the judge reduced the amount to $12,000.

"I may petition the court for further funds if he needs them," Judge Choate said.

"I am an employee of Scanart S. A., a Swiss corporation," Johansson said in his petition. "I am not an officer, director or stockholder of the company."

"I'm Broke"
"I have no money, funds or property other than my personal effects in this country and I am without any funds or resources to pay for my personal needs or expenses. The $250,000 paid for the

High School Basketball Round-up

By FRED WALTERS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The battle for the 1961 PIAA state championships has come down to a tale of two cities—Pittsburgh and Scranton.

When the teams square off at opposite ends of the state next Monday night, Pittsburgh South Hills Catholic will be meeting Scranton Catholic Youth Center for the B title.

South Hills ousted defending A champ Johnstown Catholic in the western final earlier this week while South Catholic was eliminating the defending Class B champ, Bethlehem Catholic, in an eastern final.

St. Canice whipped previously unbeaten Clearfield St. Francis in the western B final while unbeaten Prep licked Norristown Kenrich in the eastern A final.

Prep will carry a 20-0 record into the championship contest.

PIAA Races Open
Events this week threw the PIAA playoffs into a wide open scramble.

The significant developments were Fort Cherry's victory over Wampum, defending state B champ, in the WPAL-B final; Mount Lebanon's upset of Uniontown in the WPAL-A final and Reading's victory over Bethlehem in an eastern Class A regional semifinal.

The loss of Uniontown and Bethlehem removed from the picture the two favorites for the state Class A title from the east and west.

Wampum's elimination left only West Reading, of Class C, surviving among last year's three state champs. Farrell of Class A was eliminated in its own league before the playoffs began.

Faces Butler
West Reading went up against Butler Twp. Thursday night in what was expected to be its toughest test in the Class C playoffs and a defeat there wouldn't rate a major upset.

Wampum's loss wiped the slate clean of all of last year's Class B district champions.

Only once in the PIAA's long history was there a complete new roster of district champions in any year. That was in the 1926 season, competition, when none of the 1925 champions repeated. At the time, there were only eight districts.

In beating Wampum so decisively, Fort Cherry came to the fore as the front-running contender for the state title.

It has been noted that Fort Cherry was a Class A league champion team a year ago, stepping down to Class B this year because of the PIAA's new classification system which dropped ninth grade students from the enrollment count determining a team's class.

It should be added that the league Fort Cherry led a year ago was Section 4. Its successor this year, while Fort Cherry was moving to Section 15, was Mount Lebanon.

Repeating Champs
For the record, the repeat district champions this year were: Class A—Radnor (1), Nanticoke (2), Shamokin (4), Somerset (5), Johnstown (6), DuBois (9).

Class C—Jenkintown (1), West Reading (3), Hyndman (5), Commodore Perry (10), Butler Twp. (11).

The new champions: Class A—Reading (3), Mt. Lebanon (7), Pittsburgh Fifth Ave. (8), Hickory Twp. (10), Bethlehem (11).

Class B—Darby (1), Luzerne (2), Kutztown (3), Sayre (4), Tunesey Mountain (5), Merion Center (6), Fort Cherry (7), Slippery Rock (9), Cochranston (10), St. Clare (11), Mountain View (12).

Class C—Fort City 2, Muncy (4), Williamsburg (6), Clarion-Limestone (9), Susquehanna (12).

There are no Class A teams in District 12; no Class B in District 8, no Class C in District 7 and 8.

Wyckoff's Store Getting Publicity Across Country

A. B. WYCKOFF Department Store is receiving nationwide publicity through the medium of a full-page advertisement appearing in eight trade magazines.

The ad was placed by Frigidaire and honors Wyckoff's for having been a dealer in the company's products since 1926. Among the magazines and trade papers which will carry the ad between now and July are Department Store Economist, Electrical Merchandising Week, Home Furnishing Daily, Mart Magazine and National Furniture Review.

More than one-half of the ad is devoted to a close-up picture showing Jack Kerlin, vice president and general manager of Wyckoff's, standing beside a late-model Frigidaire refrigerator.

Under it is the caption: "Today, Jack Kerlin is vice president and general manager of A. B. Wyckoff, a department store in Stroudsburg, Pa. But at heart he's an appliance salesman—with 32 years Frigidaire experience! Jack says that one of the most important things about Frigidaire is this: Frigidaire dates 'em for freshness!" This is a reference to the company's policy of changing models yearly.

Seed Dressing Killing Foxes

LONDON (AP)—A seed dressing used to stimulate wheat crops is killing off England's foxes, two veterinary research workers claimed yesterday.

J. C. Taylor and D. K. Blackmore said 1,300 foxes were found dead last year and there is evidence they died from the dressing which has been used increasingly by British farmers in recent years.

Sales Of Bible High

TORONTO (AP)—Toronto booksellers report sales of the New English Bible New Testament are so brisk, Canadians may soon deplete the country's $50,000-copy stock. Distributors say no more copies will be available until a second printing of 350,000 copies is completed.

East Stroudsburg State's Conference, its sixth, will be held Monday, April 10 on the college campus. Prof. Howard DeNike, ESSC faculty member, will be in charge of the session.

An important feature of each regional conference will be the selection of a delegate to attend the Traffic Safety Conference that Governor Lawrence has called for May 3 in Harrisburg.

Freeland said: "Educating our youth to the pressing problems of safety in today's traffic by implementing in every way the Governor's Traffic Safety Program goes hand in hand with the concern of veterans for the security of our country and all of its citizens young and old."

Colonel Freeland urged all veteran organizations to work very closely with the private and secondary schools in their wage costs, mounting taxation and union opposition to the merger. He said the conference will be held at the State College nearest to them.

Additional information concerning the conferences may be obtained by writing to DeNike, State College at East Stroudsburg, Pa. Governor's Youth Conference, of the State College serving your area.

A native of Greentown, he had lived here all his life except for six years in Princeton, N.J. He was the son of Fred and Gertrude Gumbler Krieger.

Mr. Krieger was a member of Hemlock Grove Methodist Church, Greentown.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Cora Cross Krieger; one son, Robert, postmaster of Greentown; a daughter, Dorothea, Greentown; two sisters, Mrs. John Walters and Mrs. George Rumble, both of Greentown; and five grandchildren.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Sunday in South Sterling, Rev. Harry Roof and Rev. Arthur Campney will officiate and burial will be in New Greentown Cemetery.

The combined operating revenues in 1960 were $220,419,579, or $5,712,594 less than the previous year.

Wage increases awarded last year added $2,600,000 to payroll costs. Total operating expenses were $194,230,072 in 1960 compared with $194,050,373 in 1959.

Youth Traffic Safety Meet Slated For ESSC April 10

COL. WILLIAM B. Freeland, deputy adjutant general for Veterans Affairs, said yesterday "The State-wide Governor's Youth Traffic Safety Conference in mid-April should have the full backing of all veterans and veteran groups."

The conference will be held during the week April 10 to 14 at Pennsylvania's 14 State Colleges. Representatives from all public and private schools in the Commonwealth are expected to attend.

The company paid out 56.6c in wages for every dollar of income received. Total payroll costs including wages and employee benefits averaged $6.863 per employee in 1960; ten years ago they were $4.326 per employee. During 1960, the merged railroad had an average of 21,068 employees or 719 fewer than the previous year. This reduction represents a saving of $4,900,000 in payroll costs, the report indicated.

TYRONE, Pa. (AP)—A supervised blast three months in preparation took place at an estimated 180,000 to 200,000 tons of limestone yesterday at the Warner Co. quarry in nearby Union Furnace.

More than 30 tons of explosives were used to set off the blast. It sent up clouds of gray and orange smoke and sounded like the roar of Niagara Falls.

Fourteen families living a quarter-mile from the quarry were evacuated prior to the blast in a precautionary move. No damage was done to their homes.

Plant Supt. Frank Seiner called the blast a "big success." The limestone, about a year's supply, will be used in highway construction and railroad beds.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY RECORD

VOLVO economy does not mean "optional"

An "economy" car is not really an economical car where the important features turn out to be "optional." That's why Volvo produces a complete car, including as standard equipment all of the features that assure top quality performance plus great pride of ownership. • For example: White wall tires don't really add to the smoothness of the ride, but they do add to the pleasure of owning an automobile. Consequently, white wall tires are standard equipment on every Volvo . . . as are the heater-defroster, directional signals, rust-proofing, padded dash, and more. • But Volvo's greatest pride is in the standard equipment few can match—quality without compromise! Swedish engineering and craftsmanship provide Volvo owners with economy in purchase price and maintenance, long product life and resale value. Inspect and drive a Volvo. See the proof—Volvo "economy" is not "optional."
